

UC STRIKES AND BEYOND

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Video Exhibition Curated by Brian Holmes

Friday, February 26 – Sunday, April 18

Distributed Gallery/Telic Arts Exchange
951 Chung King Rd., Chinatown,
Los Angeles, CA 90012

dg.telic.info

Continental Drift: Control Society/Metamorphosis

Saturday, February 27 – Sunday, Feb. 28

The Public School
951 Chung King Rd., Chinatown,
Los Angeles, CA 90012

A theory convergence with Paris-based theorist, Brian Holmes.

Conversation topics listed below are each hosted by a pair of facilitators.

February 27
12pm Disassociation; Psychological Effects/
Desire (Liz Glynn and Marc Herbst)

2pm Financialization & the UC Crisis
(Aaron Benanav and Zen Dochterman)

4pm Occupationation/Collective Speech
(Cara Baldwin, Nathan Brown, Maya Gonzalez, Evan Calder Williams)

7pm Day 1 Discussion (Brian Holmes, introduced by Solomon Bothwell)

February 28
12pm Autonomous Spaces (Hector Gallegos, Robby Herbst)

2pm Precarity (Sean Dockray and Christina Ulke)

4pm Brian Holmes Lecture

7pm Sharable Territories/Bifurcation
(Ava Bromberg and Jason Smith)

occupyeverything.com/events/continental-drift

Beyond Protest: Considering the UC Strike

Tuesday, March 2, 12-2pm

UC Santa Barbara, Interdisciplinary Humanities Center, McCune Conference Room, 6th floor
6046 Humanities & Social Sciences Building
Santa Barbara, CA 93106

Brian Holmes and Dmitri Vilensky will be in conversation.

Chto Delat (What is to Be Done?) member Dmitri Vilensky will be in residence in California in February and March 2010 for a period of initial research at UCSD, UCLA and UCSB
in partnership with the participant-run Public School in Los Angeles and Occupy Everything.
Chto Delat's main area of focus will be the upcoming March 4th UC strike and its repercussions for the state of California education.

Chto Delat was founded in early 2003 in St.
Petersburg Russia by a workgroup of artists, critics, philosophers, and writers with the goal of merging political theory, art, and activism.

chtodelat.org

NewCLA Exchange: An Alternative

Tuesday, March 2 –
Wednesday, March 3; 12-4pm

UCLA Student Activity Center, Basement
220 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA 90095

Workshops, Discussions, Art &
Art Activist Projects

The NewCLA Exchange is a continuation of the workshops and learning tables of a Festival, but with a twist: your university, re-imagined by your terms. These workshops, though formally organized, are an opportunity for students to present themselves with difficult and challenging information regarding their situation at the university and better understand themselves as part of the movement.

Whether you are a student, worker, professor, administrator, we are all affected by the cuts to education in the state of California.
It is not just our problem, but a problem of the economic crisis that runs deep. The student movement reflects glimpses of a deeper-seated cause.

newclabruins@gmail.com

Empire Strikes Back: Organizing Inland

Wednesday, March 3 and TBA

UC Riverside Campus, Downtown Riverside, and throughout the Inland Empire
Addresses TBA

The Inland Empire has emerged as an epicenter for the relentless growth/crash dynamic of global capitalism—forcing workers out of jobs, families out of homes and students out of school. This massive displacement is the context for Empire Strikes Back: Organizing Inland.

Participants include Mike Davis, Brian Holmes, Warehouse Workers United, Pomona
Day Labor Center, United Domestic Workers,
Laborers International and many others.

organizinginland.ucr.edu occupyeverything.com/events/empire-strikes-back

General Strike

Thursday, March 4

University of California campuses and beyond

General Strike around the collapse of public education etc...

MAKE HISTORY ON MARCH 4TH

This is our moment to say NO to privatization of education, NO to the walls being built around the public commons, NO to the war on workers, NO to the domination of capital.
This is our moment to take up the struggle.
History is made by those who say NO.

occupyca.wordpress.com
anticapitalprojects.wordpress.com

These events were organized by a broad coalition of people. Independently, a group of Southern Californians came together to focus on the future of Education and Neoliberalism in this moment, and they produced this poster. Some of them participated in the organizing for some of the events listed above.
Those people are: Cara Baldwin, Solomon Bothwell, Micha Cardenas/Adzel Slade, Zen Dochterman, Sean Dockray, Ben Ehrenreich, Ken Ehrlich, Liz Glynn, Marc Herbst, Robby Herbst, Elle Mehrmand, Marko Peljhan, Kenneth Rogers, Jason Smith, Cybelle Tondou, Christina Ulke, Caleb Waldorf, Michael Wilson, and Kim Yasuda. Poster design & illustration by Steven L. Anderson, with thanks to Marija Cetinic.

occupyeverything.com